Washington, Dec. 13.-Postmaster fice Frank H. Cunningham, the South, Hungarian parliament they have been Omaha, Neb., rural mail carrier, who is entirely overshadowed by the wreckage president of the National Association effected by members of the opposition of Rural Mail Carriers, and James C. party this morning in their successful Kellar of Cleveland, O., who is at the efforts to prevent the opening of par-

The dismissal is the result of an investigation of charges of insubordina-tion, of being absent from duty without leave, and violation of the president's order of Jan. 1, 1902, prohibiting indi-vidual or organized attempts of government amployes to influence legisla-tion or to solicit increase of pay.

Absent Without Leave.

Mr. Cunningham applied to the post-master general last October for leave of absence, which the postmaster for-warded to Washington. The postoffice department declined to approve the application, and so instructed the post-master. Mr. Cunningham, however, ignored this action and came east. From that time it is announced at the post-office department, he devoted his entire time to efforts to secure pledges from candidates for election or re-election to congress to support the bill approved by the carriers for an increase of their pay. His methods, it is charged, were in distinct violation of the executive order, which explicitly forbids "all gov-ernment officers and employes, either directly or indirectly, individually or through associations, to solicit an increase of pay or to influence or attempt to influence in their own interest any other legislation whatever, either before congress or its committees or in any way save through the headquarters in or under which they are serving, on penalty of dismissal from the government service.

The association sent out circular letters to congress in an effort to secure pledges. These letters, it is stated, were signed by Secretary Tumber of the association, who also is a rural mail carrier at Rockport, N. Y., and his case is under investigation.

Mr. Cunningham submitted his resignation yesterday, but the department declined to accept it.

Kellar's Case.

The case of James C. Kellar of the Cleveland, O., postoffice as head of the National Association of Letter Carriers also reached a climax today. For several weeks his pernicious ac tivity in the recent campaign has been under investigation by the officials of the postoffice department. Since the election he has spent some time in this city. On the 5th inst. Fourth Assistant Postmester General Bristow notified him by letter that he was absent from his post in Cieveland without leave, and directing him to report at once to the postmaster at Cleveland for duty. The following day he wrote Mr. Bristow "that it will be impossible for me to comply with your order at this time." To this letter Mr. Bristow replied on the 7th inst by calling upon Kellar to show cause within three days why he should not be removed from the service for insubgration in refusion. service for insubordination in refusing to comply with an order to resume his Kellar paid no heed to this no tice. At the expiration of four days E. H. Thorpe, superintendent of the free delivery service, recommended to Mr. recommendation was approved by Mr. Bristow and transmitted to Postmaster General Payne, who today ordered Kellar's removal from the service.

Endorsed by Roosevelt.

At the meeting today Postmaster General Payne reported to the presideneral Payne reported to the president of the action he had taken in the cases of Cunningham and Kellar, and explained the nature of the charges explained the nature of the charges against them. President Roosevelt Roosevelt practically endorsed the postmaster general's action.
Postmaster General Payne informed the president that when Cunningham presented to Mr. Bristow his resignation from the service he told him that he proposed to remain in Washington to promote legislation in the interest of the letter carriers. Mr. Bristow inquired who was to pay for his time and supply his expenses, and was informed that the letter carriers' association would do that. Mr. Bristow then flatly told Cunningham that any letter car-rier found by the department to be contributing to a fund for the support of a lobbyist in Washington would be removed instantly.

Sensation in Political Circles at Halifax, N. S.

Halifax, N. S., Dec. 13.—A sensation was created in political circles today by the institution of legal proceedings against W. S. Fielding, finance minister in the federal cabinet; Sir Frederick Borden, minister of militia and defense, and four other leading like. and four other leading liberal members of parliament in Nova Scotia. Peti-tions filed in the supreme court asked that the parliamentary seats of all six be called vacant on the grounds of alleged bribery committed by agens in their behalf in the general election of Thursday, Nov. 3.—The petitions were filed in the interest of the conservative party organization. The four other respondents are Hance J. Logan, M. P., Cumberland county; J. B. Black, M. P., Hants county; E. M. McDonald, M. P., Pictou county; and F. A. Laurence, M. P., of Colchester.

"The object of her visit to us was to ave us relieve her from threatened attachment against her home in Euc-lid avenue, Cleveland, which was to be levied upon by Oberlin college for a claim of $78,000. This claim, I un-derstood, was later paid, but not through this firm's auspices.

"Mrs. Chadwick in that slow impres-Sive manner of hers said to Governor Black and me: 'I am a very rich wo-man. I have $5,000,000 in a trust fund.' We were naturally impressed. In order to make good her statement she produced Iri Reynold's certificate for the $5,000,000 of securities held by him. This naturally led us to believe that the woman spoke the truth.
"I went to Cleveland that night, on the night of March 3, and remained there all day March 4, returning on March 5. On my arrival in Cleveland I rsked Mrs. Chadwick to show me her securities, but under one pretext or another she evaded the proposition and did not show them to me. Her excuse all the time was that Iri Reynolds was Her excuse out of town, and finally after banking hours, when I insisted upon seeing other the securities or Iri Reynolds, she got Reynolds on the telephone. I talked with him and he acknowledged to me having these securities in his possession. At that time I believed that they were all right that they were all right.

"Armed with this information I saw the lawyers of the Oberlin college and Theasurer Severance and inquired about a settlement. They wanted to know from me if I had any assurances of settlement other than what Mrs. Chadwick had given me. I told them that I had not. The replied to me: 'Why, you don't know any more about this case than we do.'

turned and she paid me $1,500. That terminated this firm's connection with Mrs. Chadwick. Since that time Mrs. hadwick has made repeated efforts to again retain this firm to help her out of her difficulties, but we have always refused to have anything more to do with her. In spite of these re-reated refusals on our part Mrs. Chadvick persisted in her efforts to secur the firm's assistance and even on the day of the arrest of Mrs. Chadwick she sent her lawyer, Edmund W. All physicians are agreed that Rheumatism is the result of excess of uric acid in the blood, but there is much diversity in the treatment of this terribly painful malady. Internal remedies all too often upset the stomach and cause chronic intestinal complaints.

PAKACAMPH

Is an external remedy, which goes right to the seat of the trouble through the pores. Ordinary liniments are practically useless, as they only reach the surface, but one of Paracamph's most remarkable attributes is its marvelous penetrating properties. It goes right through the skin and flesh and into the blood, scattering congestion, allaying inflammation, soothing the nerves, and stimulating the system to pass off the excess of uric acid through the kidneys.

Stiff from Unaccustomed Exercise.

Excessive exercise when the body is unaccustomed to it will cause a stiffness and soreness amongst those muscles that have been brought most into play. Paracamph, if used freely at once, will prevent that stiffness, or
